 next, the other at Tyler some time during next week.

Mr. Ellis Taylor, who is in the city, gives a glowing report of the growth and progress of settlement in the Pan Handle country. Settlers are coming in every day and towns are growing rapidly. Vernon, the place of his residence, in Willbarger county, has put up 500 houses since they first were there.

The insurance of Mr. Jasper Japson was left to two appraisers, Mr. G. L.
 Gooch and Mr. Horace Smith, who awarded him $450 on household and would not pass on the loss on wearing apparel. Mr. Japson claims $305 loss on same and the insurance adjusters offered $175. There is insurance of $175 on wall paper, partitions, pictures and gas fitters yet to be settled.

On Wednesday a large company of delegates will leave Waco for the Southern Baptist convention to meet at Memphis, Tenn., on the 10th inst.
 The Cotton Belt road has made excellent arrangements for the comfort of passengers on this trip. Free reclining chair cars and Pullman Buffet Sleepers will be run through without change from Waco to Memphis. Tickets will be on sale the 6th, 7th and 8th.
 Round trip $16.75. A large body of the delegates will leave on the east bound Cotton Belt train Wednesday.

The active competition between the two water companies will ensure to the benefit of the people, but it will not injure either company. Given cheap water, and when one gallon has been used fifty will be in demand, and the income of both companies be a big one.
 Big sales and small profits equals small sales and big profits all the world over and in all sorts of business. Water will be applied to sprinkling and irrigating in a hundred places where it is used in one scores of parties who used wells and cisterns will change them for hydrant water, because turning a faucet is easy and pumping water is hard, and generally water will become general when it was specific and work its way into every department of use.
 There is or will be a demand for all the water both companies can supply and a profit to both companies.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.

With Deadly Purpose, but Waver-ing Aim—A Cries Call.

At ten minutes to two o'clock this afternoon Sheriff Ford and Policeman Hardwick galloping up Austin street indicated an excitement in town and quick and rapid movements among a knot of officers around the court house followed, and in fifteen minutes four men, some armed with Winchester, were scudding across the river.

A shooting, and it was said murder, had occurred at Pippins' wagon yard in East Waco, in which G. W. Crippen was the one party, and W. H. Cassidy, both well known men, the other. A News reporter was crossing the river ten minutes after Officers Ford and Hardwick galloped up Austin street, and met Cassidy on the bridge. He was not dead, but had had a mighty close call.

The difficulty occurred in Pippins' wagon yard, East Waco, at twenty minutes to two. Cassidy was on his horse in the wagon yard just starting home, Crippen rode up and turning his horse across the gate, and drawing his six shooter pulled down on Cassidy and began firing at him within fifteen feet.
 Two shots were fired, when Cassidy threw himself off his horse and another shot was fired which struck the horse in the breast. Policeman Hardwick was sitting on a watering trough in the yard, just behind Cassidy, and the first bullet passed close over his head. The shooter then threw his gun down on Officer Hardwick, and then threw it up, saying: "I don't want to kill you and I'll give up." Instead of giving up he rode off down Elm street. Hardwick was on foot and unarmed, and could not follow him. He rode at once over the river and notified Sheriff Ford, and in fifteen minutes a number of officers were on the track of Crippen, who had gone down River street.

The origin of the shooting is said to have been that Crippen had been told by his wife and others that Cassidy had been talking about him.

Crippen was caught a little before 4 o'clock near the widow Davis' place, up the river, by Officers Willford, Jim Lookwood and Sam Hall, and brought on to town.

Died.

This morning at 6 o'clock at his home on the Robinson road two miles from the city, of bronchitis, H. Keating in the 50th year of his age. The funeral taken place to-morrow evening from the German Evangelical church, Eighth street, Rev. Mr. Langkat pastor, officiating. Intment in First street cemetery.

The deceased was a person of note among the German residents. He came here from Galveston where he was engaged in merchandise, ten years ago, since which he has been engaged in farming. A good man every where esteemed and he will be missed in the neighborhood and at the little church on 8th street of which he was one of the first members and main pillars. He leaves a wife and six children, well provided for, to mourn his loss.

Notice.

Upon the conclusion of the services at the cemetery to-morrow, the assembly will be formed and all veterans of either side are requested to obey the call, form ranks and parade from the cemetery up Austin street, and all others joining the parade who may so elect to do.
